

Report on
Constitution Day Celebration
26 November 2022
Organized by:
The Department of Political Science
in collaboration with
The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC)
Haji Anfar Ali College, Doboka

'Constitution Day', or 'Samvidhan Divas', as it is known in our country, is observed on the 26th of November every year to commemorate the adoption of the Indian Constitution by the Constituent Assembly in 1949. Along with other educational institutions, Haji Anfar Ali College also celebrated the day with pomp and gaiety. The programme was organised by the Department of Political Science in collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of the college and presided over by the Principal, Dr. Mamun Azam Barbhuiya. As per the agenda, Nazrul Hussain, Associate Professor, Department of Political Science, outlined the purpose of the programme. Prof. Dr. Hasinus Sultan and Vice-Principal, Majharul Islam, in their long speeches, spelt out the aims, aspirations and significance of the day.

Prof. Nazrul Hussain, as the keynote speaker, elaborately explained the growth and development of the Indian Constitution. He also deliberated on the necessity for the younger generation to have knowledge about the constitution and their accountability as citizens towards the nation. In his valuable speech, Principal Dr Mamun Azam Barbhuiya urged all present to respect and abide by the golden principles of the Indian Constitution. The programme came to an end with a pledge taken by the teachers and the students to uphold the Constitution by reading out the Preamble to the Constitution, recited by Dr. Hasinus Sultan.