

HAJI ANFAR ALI COLLEGE, DOBOKA

Participation as Resource Person at the National Seminar

(as part of MoU signed)

Dr. Adidur Rahman, IQAC Coordinator, Haji Anfar Ali College has attended as Resource Person at the two days National Seminar on 'Tribal Politics in North East India: Issues, Challenges & Emerging Trends' (19-20, June, 2023) organised by the Department of Political Science & History, Thong Nokbe College, Dokmoka, Karbi Anglong in collaboration with South East Assam Regional Political Science (SEARPSA) and sponsored by Karbi Anglong Autonomous Council (KAAC).

The teachers of the host college invited faculty members of Haji Anfar Ali College to attend the National Seminar as part of MoU signed between both the colleges. Accordingly, Dr. Adidur Rahman, Associate Professor, Dept. of Political Science has conducted the afternoon technical session of 20th June, 2023 at the Conference Hall of the College. He also presented a research paper on the topic- 'Struggle for Identity: A Study of the Chakma Refugees of Arunachal Pradesh'.

The National Seminar was attended by teachers, research scholars; academicians from different parts of North East region and among them fifty participants presented their papers. There were interactions among the participants and the paper presenters. The seminar was concluded with vote of thanks by Dr. Lutfur Rahman, Coordinator, of the National Seminar, Thong Nokbe College, Dokmoka, Karbi Anglong (Assam)

Outcome of the National Seminar- (a) Discussed on the major issues of North East India including border disputes, displacement, assimilation problems, migration, and identity crisis. (b) Focused on the current issues such as ethnic clash of Manipur between Kuki and Meiti people in the state. (c) Agreed to publish a research book with ISBN by editing all the papers presented at the seminar. (d) The research scholars are urged to conduct research at the micro level for academic pursuit.

Sd/-

Dr. Adidur Rahman,
Associate Professor &
IQAC Coordinator
Haji Anfar Ali College
Doboka: Assam

