

Report of the Inauguration of Mini Museum, Department of Assamese

Haji Anfar Ali College

On 27 May, 2023 at 12 noon, the Mini Museum of the Assamese Department and the handwritten magazine 'Kalam' were inaugurated by the Principal of Haji Anfar Ali College, Doboka. IQAC Coordinator Dr. Adidur Rahman, Vice-principal Mojaharul Islam and many others participated in this inauguration ceremony. Dr. Kabita Devi, HoD, moderated the event and the objective was explained by Dr. Abdul Malik. All the contributors to the museum were honored with a traditional Assamese Gamocha. Dr. Kabita Devi introduced the resources and treasures of the Museum to everyone and acknowledged the sincere assistance of not only of the students and alumni of the Department but of her husband Shri Laksheshwar Nath also in collecting those rare resources. Everyone present there applauded and thanked Mr. Nath for his effort. The keynote speaker, Dr. Adidur Rahman, appreciated the Mini Museum and the handwritten magazine 'Kalam' of the Assamese Department. He promised to donate two rare treasures to the Museum. Dr. Sahab Uddin appreciated the collective endeavour of the Department and thanked Dr. Devi to initiate the museum, the first of its kind in the College. Abdus Subur Talukdar opined that the museum is not a treasure of any particular religion, but it represents the Assamese culture at large. Dr Hasinus Sultan said that the efforts of the Assamese Department were exemplary. S A Osmani recollected that how frustration rolled over in accumulating the treasures of the Museum and he appreciated the courage of the task of accumulation. Abdul Hamid Talukdar appreciated the work of the Department. Tulika Goswami acknowledged the courage given by everyone in the college to give the Museum its final shape. The Chairman besides appreciating the Department promised that the Museum will be expanded in the near future. Finally, the Chairperson Dr. Mamun Azam Barbhuiya thanked all those present and announced the dissolution of the meeting.
