Memorandum of Understanding (MoU)

Date: 30/10/2021

Parties:

1. Haji Anfar Ali College, Doboka
2. Doboka 30 Bedded Rural Hospital

Purpose:

The purpose of this MoU is to establish a collaboration between Haji Anfar Ali College, Doboka and Doboka 30 Bedded Rural Hospital to conduct various awareness programmes on health issues in rural places and villages.

Scope of Collaboration:

The collaboration between the two parties shall include the following activities:

1. Conducting awareness programmes on health issues in rural places and villages.
2. Vaccination of students in the rural areas.
3. Conducting cleanliness drives in the hospital campus.
4. Observance of national days related to health issues.
5. Conducting awareness programmes on child nutrition, ill-effects of drugs and alcohol etc.

Benefits to Rural Communities:

Through this collaboration, the rural communities will be able to access valuable information on health issues, child nutrition, and the ill-effects of drugs and alcohol. The awareness programmes and cleanliness drives will create a more hygienic and sustainable environment, promoting the overall well-being of the community.

Financial Arrangements:

There shall be no financial compulsion on either party for the activities mentioned above.

Community Involvement:

We strongly believe that community involvement is crucial in creating a sustainable and healthy environment. We encourage everyone to participate actively in the awareness programmes and cleanliness drives.
